with Lorraine Kypiotis
08–23 June 2015 (16 days)
Art Cities of the Veneto and Venice Biennale

Stretching from the lagoon of Venice to Lake Garda, the Veneto region abounds in the best of Italy: its art and architecture, food and wine, history and heritage, and a variety of landscapes.

Staying in Verona, Vicenza, Castelfranco Veneto and Venice, explore the nearby smaller ‘art cities’ of Mantua, Padua and Treviso and go ‘off the beaten track’ to Asolo, Marostica, Bassano da Grappa, the ‘prosecco route’ and the villas of the Brenta Canal.

Throughout the region, there will be a special focus on the architecture of Palladio and his followers. The tour will conclude in La Serenissima, with ample time to explore the 2015 Venice Biennale.

At a glance

- Enjoy leisurely stays in Verona, Vicenza, Castelfranco Veneto and Venice.
- Explore the smaller ‘art cities’ and less visited towns and regions of the Veneto.
- Discover the rich heritage of Palladian architecture throughout.
- Finish with two days at the Venice Biennale.
- Experience the regional cuisines and wines of the Veneto, famed for its gastronomy.

Itinerary

Sun 07 June 2014  Depart Australia
Suggested departure from Australia on Qantas / Emirates via Dubai.

Mon 08 June  Arrive Verona
Early afternoon arrival at Venice International Airport. After immigration, luggage collection and customs transfer by coach to Verona (130 km, approx. 2 hr). Tour members arriving on earlier flights may join this transfer.

Afternoon at leisure before an evening welcome briefing, cocktails and light refreshments. 😊

Tue 09 June  Verona
Following a morning talk, begin your exploration of Verona with a visit to the Roman Arena and walk through the town centre via Piazza Erbe and Piazza Signori and the Arche Scaglie, the finest medieval tomb-complex in Italy. Continue to the church of Sant’Anastasia to view Pisanello’s fresco of St George and the Princess (c. 1436). From the Porta Borsari walk via the 16th century palaces, Palazzo Canossa and Palazzo Bevilacqua.

After lunch walk to the Castelvecchio, which contains works by the great northern Italian painters Mantegna, Giovanni Bellini, Veronese, Lotto. Continue on to the great Romanesque church of San Zeno Maggiore, with Mantegna’s masterpiece, the San Zeno Triptych (1457–59). Return to the hotel via the Duomo, which contains an altarpiece by Titian, and San Stefano which dates back to the early 12th century. 😊

Wed 10 June  Verona (Mantua)
Full day excursion to Mantua. Visit the Ducal Palace, a vast sprawl which evolved during 300 years of more or less continuous building. The high point is the Camera degli Sposi, one of the foremost achievements of Renaissance illusionistic painting, featuring Mantegna’s frescoes. Continue on to Sant’Andrea, Alberti’s most ambitious and coherent building.

After a break on your own for lunch visit the Fondazione d’Arco, which is housed inside the former Renaissance home of the aristocratic d’Arco family. Its impressive collection includes 18th century artwork, furniture and ceramics. Finish with Giulio Romano’s Mannerist folly, the Palazzo del Te, the jewel of which is the Sala dei Giganti. The entire Palazzo reflects the Gonzaga’s struggle for power and desire for love. 😊

Thu 11 June  Verona (Lake Garda)
Today’s excursion takes you to Lake Garda and the pretty town of Sirmione located on the southern shore of the lake, perched on the end of a long promontory. Sirmione’s beautiful setting was praised by the Roman poet Catullus. The town’s narrow medieval streets bustle with colour and life, and its most striking feature is the moated castle, Rocca Scaligera. Enjoy a scenic cruise and visit to the Isola del Garda. Return to Verona in the afternoon.

Possible optional evening performance (opera, ballet, concert) at Teatro Filarmonico (subject to performance schedules, not included in tour cost).

Fri 12 June  Verona
Following a morning talk, the rest of the morning is at leisure to further explore Verona on your own.

In the afternoon, visit two private villas in the environs of Verona. First visit the spectacular gardens of the Palazzo Giusti, developed in the sixteenth century on the hill of on the model of the Tuscan Renaissance gardens. Continue to the Villa Allegri Arvedi, a typical Venetian villa dating back to the 16th century. The villa, standing on a turfed terrace, looks out onto a parterre – the only one of its kind in Italy – characterised by elegant double-fan-shaped drawings in century-old box hedges. 😊
Sat 13 June
Verona – Vicenza
Morning transfer from Verona to Vicenza.
Following a panoramic view of the Vicenza region from the Piazza della Vittorio, enjoy an afternoon walking tour of the historic city centre, a showcase of Palladian architecture. Highlights include Palladio’s Olympic Theatre, the Basilica Palladiana, the Palazzo Chiericati (housing the Civic Art Gallery) and the Palladio Museum at Palazzo Barbarano.

Sun 14 June
Vicenza
Spend a full day in the environs of Vicenza exploring a selection of villas designed by or inspired by Palladio. Begin on the outskirts of Vicenza with the Villa Rotonda, arguably Palladio’s finest legacy to the architectural world. Continue to the Villa Valmarana ai Nani featuring frescoes by the 18th century master Tiepolo.
Lunch at leisure before heading north to the Thiene Castle, considered the most notable 15th-century Gothic building in the Vicenza area. It is an extraordinary example of a pre-Palladio villa, the only one of its kind and a benchmark in the evolution of the Veneto villa.

Mon 15 June
Vicenza
After a morning at leisure enjoy an afternoon tour to Bassano del Grappa, a pretty medieval town on the Brenta River in the foothills of the Dolomites. On the way, stop in Marostica, famous for its living chess event and cherry grappa.

Tue 16 June
Vicenza – (Padua) – Castelfranco Veneto
Morning departure from Vicenza for Padua where you will spend the day.
Start with a visit to the Arena Chapel (Capella Scrovegni) to see Giotto’s great cycle of frescoes. Continue to the nearby Chiesa degli Eremitani to see the remnants of Mantegna’s frescoes that barely survived bombing in World War II.
After a break for lunch visit the Byzantine-style Basilica of Sant’Antonio, containing great works by Donatello and Altichiero, and the Chapel of Sant’Antonio by Tullio Lombardo. The adjoining Beato Luca Chapel contains remarkable frescoes by Giusto de Menabuoi, while the Scuola del Santo houses early masterpieces by Titian. Continue to the Palazzo della Ragione, Duomo and Baptistry containing more frescoes by Giusto de Menabuoi.
Late afternoon transfer to Castelfranco Veneto, a small historic walled town, the birthplace of artist Giorgione.

Wed 17 June
Castelfranco Veneto (Treviso)
Following a morning talk, explore the nearby historic town of Treviso, surrounded by a city wall and crossed by three canals. Begin at the Piazza dei Signori, dominated by the Gothic Palazzo dei Trecento. Continue to the majestic Cathedral of San Pietro of Treviso with its seven domes. In the 15th and 16th century the neoclassical cathedral was built here in place of an old Romanesque church. Despite the monumental neo-classical design of the cathedral it houses inside a beautiful Romanesque crypt and a number of works by Italian masters. The altar painting ‘The Annunciation’ by Titian (1517) is one of his finest works. The frescoes in the Cappella Malchiostro are by Pordenone and were inspired by Michelangelo’s Sistine Chapel. In the Cappella del Sacramento there are beautiful sculptures by Pietro Lombardo from 1484.
Afternoon at leisure to further explore Treviso on your own before returning to Castelfranco Veneto.

Thu 18 June
Castelfranco Veneto
Enjoy a day in the picturesque hills and villages to the north of Castelfranco Veneto. This region is renowned for its wineries and, in particular, the production of prosecco, the delicious Italian sparkling wine.
Begin with a visit to the Canova Museum in Possagno, the birthplace and home of the great neo-classical sculptor Antonio Canova. Continue to Andrea Palladio’s famous Villa Maser (‘Villa Barbaro’) for a visit, wine tasting and lunch. Return to Castelfranco Veneto via the medieval town of Asolo known as ‘The City of a Hundred Horizons’ for its mountain settings.
Fri 19 June – Castelfranco Veneto – Venice
Depart Castelfranco Veneto for Venice. On the way, spend the day visiting a selection of villas along the Brenta Canal, built in the 16th century to connect Venice with her inland empire. Following the establishment of the canal, numerous villas sprouted along its course, many designed by Palladio.
Late afternoon arrival in Venice. 🍴 🍳

Sat 20 June – Venice
On a morning walking tour of the Santa Croce district, you will visit three of the great cultural treasures of Venice: the Frari Basilica decorated by the great Venetian artists Giovanni Bellini and Tiziano; the Scuola Grande di San Rocco, housing Tintoretto’s great pictorial cycle; and the Scuola Grande del Carmine featuring some of Tiepolo’s most delightful ceiling frescoes.
Finish the morning with a typical light Venetian tapas-style lunch of cicchetti at a bacaro.
This afternoon pay your first visit to the Venice Biennale, widely regarded as the most important and prestigious event on the international contemporary arts calendar. Founded in 1895, it is the oldest and largest established biennale in the world. The 2015 Venice Biennale will see the opening of the new Australian Pavilion, designed by Denton Corker Marshall, which will replace the first pavilion, a temporary structure designed by Philip Cox, which was built in 1988. The sole artist to represent Australia at the Venice Biennale 2015 is Fiona Hall AO. 🍴 🍳

Sun 21 June – Venice
Take a leisurely morning stroll to the Ca’ Pesaro, a Baroque marble palazzo on the grand canal designed by Baldassare Longhena and now the Museum of Modern Art. Continue on to the nearby Palazzo Mocenigo, the museum dedicated to the history of fashion and fragrance, its resplendent rooms recently renovated to evoke the life of 17th century nobility.
After lunch visit the Arsenale exhibition of the Venice Biennale, which will be curated by the Nigerian-born, German-based curator and museum director Okwui Enwezor. Enwezor was the curator of Documenta 11 in Kassel (2002), has organised biennials from Seville to South Korea and has been the director of Munich’s Haus der Kunst since 2011. 🍴 🍳

Mon 22 June – Venice
Enjoy a full day at leisure to explore, or re-explore Venice. You may wish to revisit the Biennale or any of the great art museums of Venice including the Accademia, the Peggy Guggenheim Collection, the Museo Correr or the Ca’Rezzonico. You might also like to explore the Piazza San Marco including the Byzantine Basilica di San Marco, the Palazzo Ducale and the Biblioteca Marciana, the library designed by Jacopo Sansovino.
Late afternoon, transfer to the Giudecca for a visit to some of the Biennale events in smaller private galleries and spaces, followed by a farewell dinner overlooking Venice. 🍴 🍳
